25X1

The airfield southwest of BARTH (N 55/P 25) was unoccupied although its runway was serviceable. The debris of the destroyed airfield buildings was being hauled away.

Comment:

a. Report agrees with previous information that the airfield is not occupied by an air unit.

b. The information of mid-April 1949 *, according to which the landing field was under cultivation, has proved to be wrong.

c. According to a previous report , a new airfield was constructed northwest of BARTH. It was, however, learned in the meantime that the reported landing field was a former drill ground and that the observed barracks were former Flak barracks.
